Keynote Address:
Rise Above: A First Hand Look at Successful Gang Intervention

Having grown up in a gang, Joey Ray has seen the importance of tackling the gang problem first hand. With friends getting killed and no end in sight, Joey Ray felt that he had no future and no hope of a better life. Through the work of Homeboy Industries, he was able to rise above his surroundings and leave the gang life behind. In this keynote address:

- Hear a member of Homeboy Industries discuss the importance of gang prevention and intervention
- Identify what organizations can do to change the lives of countless gang members and their communities

Day Two: Tuesday, October 6, 2009

8:30
Continental Breakfast

9:00
Keynote Address:
The Impact of Intelligence Led Policing on Eradicating Gang Violence

The Intelligence-Led Policing (ILP) model is to enhance the use of resources dedicated to investigating criminal street gangs. The ILP model focuses on gathering information through the use of confidential informants, crime analysis, and surveillance measures as a part of the overall strategy. As tough economic times have reduced resources, utilizing the ILP model in gang intelligence and investigation will improve information sharing and collaborative solutions to problematic street gang activity.

- Harness agency buy-in to deploy ILP techniques for greater investigation capabilities
- Develop an understanding of intelligence-led policing and how it will help save your agency money
